What's Your Price?

Steve Higginbotham

Poor Esau will forever be known as a "profane" man for selling his birthright for a bowl of soup (Hebrews 12:16)! "How crazy is that," we think? But before we judge him too harshly, we had better take a close look at ourselves.

I know of a husband and wife who were once faithful Christians. However they decided to start a lawn-care business and just couldn't "waste" a Sunday on worship when they could be mowing.

You see, Esau isn't all alone in his folly. He has company. This couple sold their "birthright" for a nicely manicured lawn, or more to the point - grass! An elderly Christian lady, who is now deceased, once shared this with me...

"A million dollars and a bale of hay will be worth the same on Judgment Day."

For Esau it was a bowl of soup. For Judas, it was 30 pieces of silver. For the Christian couple I mentioned, it was green grass. What about you? Do you have a price? Give it some thought (Matthew 16:26).

A Lesson in Life

Selected

Try this quiz:

- Name the five wealthiest people in the world.
- Name the last five Heisman trophy winners.
- Name ten people who have won the Nobel or Pulitzer Prize.
- Name the last half dozen Academy Award winners for best actor and actress.
- Name the last decade's worth of World Series winners.

How did you do? The point is this: none of us remember the headliners of yesterday. These are no second-rate achievers. They are the best in their fields. But the applause dies. Awards tarnish. Achievements are forgotten. Accolades and certificates are buried with their owners.

Here's another quiz. See how you do on this one:

- List a few teachers who aided your journey through school.
- Name three friends who have helped you through a difficult time.
- Name five people who have taught you something worthwhile.
- Think of a few people who have made you feel appreciated and special.
- Think of five people you enjoy spending time with.

Easier? The lesson? The people who make a difference in your life are not the ones with the most credentials, the most money, or the most awards. They are the ones that care.

Some Quotes Worth Pondering . . .

"Who are you today? You are the person you chose to be. Your very identity is defined by every choice you have ever made. But it is not over."

"Nothing is easy to the unwilling."

"Life is like a ladder; every step we take is either up or down."
