I AM THANKFUL FOR

- I am thankful for the wife who says, "It's hotdogs for supper tonight," because she is here at home with me, and not with anyone else.
- For the teenager who is complaining about doing dishes, because that means she is at home and not on the streets.
- For the taxes that I pay, because that means I am employed.
- For the mess to clean up after the party, because that means I have been surrounded by friends.
- For the clothes that fit a little too snug, because that means I have enough to eat.
- For my shadow that watches me work, because that means I am out in the sunshine.
- For a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning and gutters that need fixing, because that mean I have a home.
- For all of the complaining I hear about the government, because that means we have freedom of speech.
- For the parking space at the far end of the parking lot, because that means I am capable of walking and that I have been blessed with transportation.
- For the large heating bill, because it means I have been warm this winter.
- For the person behind me at church that sings off key, because that means I can hear.
- For the pile of laundry and ironing, because it means that I have clothes to wear.
- For weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day, because it means I was capable of working hard.
- For the alarm that goes off early in the morning, because it means I am alive.

Psalm 100:4: Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his with praise: be thankful unto Him and bless His name.
