You get out of it what you put into it

Dennis Lowe

The above saying is one with which most of us are familiar. We recognize its truth in most areas of our lives. Many may not realize that it is also a biblical principle. In 2 Kings 4:1-7 we see this principle in action. A poor widow has come to the prophet Elisha for help. Her sons are about to be sold into slavery to pay her debts and she has nothing but a container of oil. Elisha tells her to borrow all the empty vessels she can from her neighbors and then close her door and pour oil into the empty vessels. When she runs out of vessels the oil stops. Elisha then tells her to sell the oil and pay her debts and she and her sons can live on the remainder. She was blessed in direct proportion to the amount of work she put into collecting the empty vessels. Had she put in little effort, she would have received a smaller blessing. In like manner, we will receive spiritual blessings in direct proportion to the amount of work we put into doing God's will. If one feels that they "didn't get anything out of the worship service", it is probably because they didn't put much into it. In 2 Corinthians 9:6 the apostle Paul writes, "But this I say: He who sows sparingly will reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully." As Jesus said in Matthew 16:27, "For the Son of Man will come in the glory of His Father with His angels, and then He will reward each according to his works."

Learning to Serve

Rob Albright

Our oldest granddaughter is working now part time serving customers at a local restaurant. This is her first real job (she loves the tip money). She is learning what it means to serve others. Not all the customers are alike or have the same needs as far as food orders are concerned.

Most customers are friendly but every now and then she gets an unfriendly customer. When that happens, her servant minded mentality gets tested.

With our service to God, there will be difficult times for us. I am thankful we have the perfect example of what it means to be a servant. Jesus said He came, not to be served, but to serve (Mt. 20:28). Following Him in attitude and actions leads us to become a servant. Jesus also said we are to follow Him and learn from Him (Mt. 11:29). In doing that, we also learn to "serve one another" (Gal.5:13). Going on to maturity means serving "the living and true God" (1 Thess. 1:9b) and serving one another (Gal. 5:13).
