Let none of you suffer as... a busybody...

Dennis Lowe

In 2 Peter 1:3 the apostle Peter tells us that God has “given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness”, meaning that in God’s word we can find principles to guide us in every area of life. This includes our personal relationships. While it is quite true that we are to be concerned with our fellow man and especially our brothers and sisters in Christ, we cannot use this as license to meddle in other people’s business uninvited. In 1 Peter 4:15 the apostle Peter wrote, “But let none of you suffer as a murderer, a thief, an evil-doer, or as a busybody in other people’s matters.” Many would think that being just a bit “nosy” or meddling just a little in the affairs of others is no big deal but look at the list in which Peter includes the busybody. To Peter, being a busybody is on par with being a murderer, thief, or evil-doer. Is that the company we would like to be compared with? In 2 Thessalonians 3:11 and 1 Timothy 5:13 the apostle Paul also warns about those who apparently don’t have enough of their own business to worry about and go about meddling in the business of others. “For we hear that there are some who walk among you in a disorderly manner, not working at all, but are busybodies.” (2 Thes. 3:11). We should always show love and concern for others but before we meddle in their business let them invite us to do so.

Ruined by a Lie

David Bragg

An unidentified driver got a surprise the night they decided to destroy Cody Lutz's giant snowman. Lutz, along with his sister and his fiancée, spent considerable time constructing the nine-foot tall snowman. Then someone thought it would be fun to mow down the gigantic structure with their vehicle. The next morning the tire tracks leading up to the Petersburg, KY residence were clear. Also clear was what the driver realized all too late the previous night: the core support for the snowman was a large tree stump (WXIX Cincinnati, Jan. 15, 2019).

There is little doubt that the vandal believed the snowperson was just snow. After all, it looked like snow. They must of thought that it would disintegrate like snow under the more substantial weight of a powerful vehicle. Surely, they believed it was, well, snow! They discovered the truth the hard way.

Sadly, and at a far greater cost, many in the religious world have placed their trust in a grace wrapped in a false gospel. It may look to them like biblical grace. They may have been convinced it was true grace. But someday the truth will be revealed that what they believed to be grace was wrapped in partial truths and full-fledged lies. Pray that it won't be too late!
